

International Metal Decorator

2013 SPECIAL CONFERENCE EDITION

Welcome to the International Metal Decorators Association Annual Conference

This year, the theme of our conference is Metal Packaging: A Brand's Billboard. If a billboard is facing the wrong way on a street, drivers and pedestrians miss it. If a magazine ad appears in a magazine that readers don't read, they miss that ad. If millions are spent on an incredible television ad, but viewers are watching something else, they miss it. But, anyone who picks up a product in metal packaging sees the brand name and the incredible graphics that have either been printed on a flat sheet or in the round. Metal packaging is the brand's billboard that no one misses.

Besides offering a first class package, constant technological improvement has allowed metal packaging to surf at the top of marketing waves. Metal decorating creates pop and zing that attract attention and inspire strong brand recognition much the same way that the magnetic north pole points attracts all compass needles to point north.

This set of presentations provides information in current metal decorating trends that would otherwise entail presentations requiring planning, organization, travel, and wasted idle time. We have found the best of the best and organized them into two days of tight programming and networking to provide remarkable take home value.

There will be five sessions held over two full days. On Wednesday, there will be a morning session followed by lunch. On Wednesday afternoon, you will have a choice of two breakout sessions, one for two piece decorating and another for flat sheet decorating. On Thursday morning there will be a full morning session followed by lunch. The afternoon will split into tutorials that are designed to offer the basics and refresher presentations on essentials of the products and services in the metal decorating industry.

On Wednesday afternoon, after the sessions, vendors in our industry will display their products and services in a two hour table top exhibition. This is a highly valuable opportunity because it allows you to get questions answered, collect brochures, meet vendors, see samples and pursue concepts from many vendors in one place and in one period of time.

During the lunches, the exhibition, and after the tutorials raffle drawings will be held. To qualify you must turn in the completed survey form directly after the ended session for which you will be handed a raffle ticket. These survey forms provide the critical feedback that the committee uses to create and make changes for the next year's conference. So, please, fill out all of the questionnaires and know that you are helping to make next year's conference even better than this year's and you are giving yourself better odds to win than if you were to buy a lottery ticket. The raffle prizes include iPad's and various tablets. These are great prizes!

If you have questions that are not covered in this sheet or in the convention materials, please feel free to ask any of the committee members. They can be identified by the yellow ribbons hanging from their name tags.

Enjoy the conference.

President Jack Knight 's Farewell Thank You Message

I would like to thank everyone for their support during my term as your President of the IMDA. The IMDA is the longest lasting association of professionals serving the can industry. This organization that first meet in 1933 has come a long way in the past 80 years and I am so very proud to have been a part of it. Looking back as I spent my time going through the chairs of the organization I have seen many changes. The biggest of which I was a part of was the introduction of the website. This is truly our portal to the International Membership that cannot make it to our annual conference in Chicago held every May. Our membership that consists of a 60 to 40 mix of suppliers and can makers, in over 30 countries continues to grow. My pledge as president to the organization was to increase the membership during my tenure. I am pleased to say that we have accepted over 150 membership applications during my two years as your President. That brings the organization membership closing in the 700 member mark for the first time in 20+ years.

As a soon to be past president I plan on continuing my pledge to grow the organization membership through my International outreach. The tremendous breadth of knowledge and experience that exists within our membership enables us to maintain our reputation as a recognized leader in the can industry for its knowledge base. The Association is often sought out for input and guidance on issues that affect the can industry worldwide.

The annual membership conference/training event that is the meeting point for all our member's. This is member-driven event that is designed to provide opportunities to exchange information and to learn from other experts in our industry. So if you are not a member please join, if you are a member have not yet experience the annual Conference in Chicago we invite you to come and refresh, re-load, and re-energize your professional life, or simply share your best practices and research by becoming part of the International Metal Decorators Associations experience.

IMDA is always looking for good people who would like to be involved in our Association. Let me know if I can find an interesting spot for you.

Thank you for your voluntarism,

Jack E. Knight

IMDA President
2011-2013

17th Annual EXCELLENCE IN QUALITY COMPETITION

This Year's Excellence in Quality Competition was one of the best on record. With over 130 entries presented, we will see some of the best craftsmanship this industry has to offer. We will be announcing this year's award winners during our Awards Luncheon on Wednesday. Following this year's conference, we will be publicizing the results in major industry magazines and we will be generating the first ever Excellence in Quality showcase of metal decorating brochure for distribution to promote the graphic capabilities that metal decorating has to offer.

This is the first year where we conducted a no entry fee showcase and we would not be able to provide that opportunity, to present crystal awards and fund the upcoming promotional material if it were not for our Sponsorship. We thank the below listed companies for your support not only in a financial way, but for believing that there is value in recognizing those metal decorating companies who participated. All of them are Winners! You will agree when you see the quality of workmanship submitted.
