

As one of the longest running and most prestigious annual metal decorating competitions, The Excellence in Quality Contest honors outstanding companies who have made exceptional quality and precise consistency their mission in the pursuit of decorating & packaging excellence. The contest recognizes the skillful achievements of the metal decorating and packaging industry. Judges evaluate the quality of printing, the degree of difficulty, the appearance of coating finishes, registration, and the technical expertise required for each piece. Entries from around the globe are judged in eight categories with the best entry given the Grand Award.
